

RIVERWOOD DOWNS NATURE PHOTOGRAPHY RETREATS

13th-15th March 2017

Join internationally awarded local photographers Lynn and Dick Jenkin for a couple of days of fun as we explore, through the lens of your camera, the nature and wildlife of the wonderfully secluded Riverwood Downs property in the foothills of the picturesque Barrington Tops.

The retreat will kick off with a meet and greet your fellow participants on the Monday night before dinner.

We will start Tuesday morning with an early walk to capture our first images with the best light of the day. After a hearty morning tea it will be out for some more exploring with our cameras in hand.

In the afternoon, we will hold a post-photo processing workshop in air conditioned comfort. The session will be based on Lightroom and Photoshop software, so bring your laptops, and rather than an exhaustive coverage, we will guide you through the techniques we use to get the best out of our captured images.

We will also include a session on the best bushcraft skills for approaching wildlife and some ethics on wildlife photography.

On Wednesday we will again have an early morning walk and after morning tea, another processing session before wrapping up at lunch time.

Inclusions:

All photography walks, processing and tuition workshops.

Morning and afternoon teas on the Tuesday.

Morning tea on the Wednesday.

Minimum of 4 and Maximum of 12 participants: $350pp

Exclusions:

Accommodation (Riverwood Downs has a range of accommodation from camping to motel style units)

Meals and Drinks (other than morning and afternoon tea)
